St. Jude's Episcopal Church • Fenton, Michigan

Rector's Report

It was only a few short weeks ago that we had an extra special celebration as Paul Brunell was ordained as a Transitional Deacon. Paul has been temporarily assigned to St. Jude's as he waits for his call and placement to the church where he will be serving.

In just a few short weeks we will be welcoming The Rev. Deacon Judy Marinco as Vocational Deacon assigned to St. Jude's. Judy is already an ordained Deacon so we will be recognizing that she will be serving in our midst in a new way.

As we look to the time when we will have two Deacons at St. Jude's, this seems like an excellent opportunity to talk about the two different kinds of Deacons that St. Jude's will experience, at least for a short period of time. Paul, Judy and I are also working on a sermon that all of us will participate in to highlight the differences in our calls and ministries. More details about that will be available soon!

Judy Marinco is a Vocational Deacon and has been called to ministry as an ordained Deacon. The best way to describe her ministry is one of "bridge." She brings the needs of the world to the attention of the church. She then helps all of us respond to that need as we move out into the world. She will also have liturgical duties – Paul has been serving liturgically as a Deacon since he's been with us as a student.

Paul has discerned a call to serve as a Priest in the church and that call has been confirmed by the church. The Church has never believed in "direct ordination" where a call to priesthood would result in one ordination – to the order of Priest. Instead, we ordain priests first as Deacons and we call them transitional Deacons. The Canons require a transitional Deacon to remain Deacons for a minimum of 6 months. The practice of the church has been to not ordain someone a Priest without a parish in which they would serve.

Although St. Jude's will have two Deacons for a time, they both have very different ministries and focuses. I'm hoping to be able to explore these differences a bit more during a sermon, hopefully in December. Paul, Judy

Notes from the Vestry

The Vestry met this month and with the help of the Treasurer, Michelle Gangwer, reviewed the current financial information. She reported that we hope to have enough cash in the checking in order not to have to draw funds from investments again this year. Jerry Rucker brought a report from the Finance Committee informing the Vestry that their analysis of the budget tracking reveals that the projected deficit is $19,439.55 for this year. The Vestry approved the 2019 Budget with a Deficit Reduction line which consisted of members pledging to send an extra month of their monthly pledge which would increase revenues $5,478.00. Jerry reported that to date the deficit revenue line is zero, but the hope is that folks will be sending the extra month of pledge before the end of the year. Jerry shared that Tracie's sermon on Sunday really hit home when she said that the Episcopal church of the 1950's is not where we are today. Jerry suggested that we have to make changes if this is a truth going forward and that we will have to make hard decisions going forward. Tracie noted that the Stewardship campaign is connected to the House Group meetings which she feels are being well received and which are clarifying what St. Jude's means to members and what it as a Church brings to their lives. This will help people's decision making when they make Pledge commitments in the upcoming Stewardship campaign.

A request for additional spending to complete the work on the Altar Project in the Sacristy area was discussed and was not agreed upon since it would require an additional draw down from Investments. Denise suggested that we make an effort to raise the cost of the materials needed – so folks will see examples of the materials

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our Prayer Shawl Ministry makes prayers tangible to those who are facing surgery, a serious illness, or any need. The making of a prayer shawl is a spiritual practice which embodies our thoughts and prayers for the receiver. It is a gift freely given with no strings attached. Made in prayer, as a prayer, for prayer, the shawls are passed on hand-to-hand and heart-to-heart.

The prayer shawl ministry will meet Tuesday, Nov. 12 and Tuesday, Dec. 10,
both meetings will start at 6:30 p.m.
Meeting locations will be announced.

Music Notes

November is an exciting month liturgically and musically. The month begins with the Feast of All Saints on November 3. This Sunday features some of the most thrilling music in the entire Christian year. We begin with one of the greatest hymns in the English language, For all the saints, experience the child-like faith of I sing a song of the saints of God, review the Beatitudes with the contemporary song, Blest are they and conclude with the magnificent Ye watchers and ye holy ones.

The readings for the other Sundays of November allude to the second coming of Christ in glory as we approach Advent. The final Sunday of the liturgical year, November 24, is designated as Christ the King Sunday These days will feature music appropriate to the lessons as well as some favorite harvest themes.

Wednesday, November 27, is the Community Thanksgiving Service at St. John's at 7 PM. Special music is provided by musicians assembled from various churches. Several musicians from St. Jude's will be participating. This is such a wonderful opportunity to give thanks and meet our friends from the wider Christian community and it is always gratifying to see familiar faces from our congregation. Come join with us!!

November is a packed month full of times of celebration as well as reflection. Let us enjoy these special times as we worship together.

Have a blessed month.

News from the Finance Committee

If you are 70-1/2 or older and have an IRA, you are probably familiar with the Required Minimum Distribution, (RMD), mandate. Every year after 70-1/2 you have to withdraw a minimum amount from your IRA based on a specific formula from the IRS. This distribution is taxed as regular income at whatever prescribed rate you need to pay.

What you may not have known is you can use some or all of this RMD as a charitable donation to a Qualified Charity, (St. Jude's). This is called the IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution rule and it allows IRA account owners who are subject to the RMD rules to use untaxed money in an IRA as a donation to a charity TAX-FREE. The rules require that the money distributed be directly transferred to a charitable organization, and they set a dollar limit of $100,000 per year ($200,000 per couple).

Also, you can't claim the charitable deduction for the same contribution on your tax return (sorry, no double dipping). Note, this provision does not apply to a Roth IRA, which has tax-free withdrawals and no RMDs.

Very important note:

The money withdrawn from your IRA and donated to charity stays out of your adjusted gross income only if you make a direct transfer from your account to the charity. It doesn't qualify as a tax-free transfer if you withdraw the money first, deposit it into another account and then donate it to the charity.

Most major financial institutions are well equipped to handle this transaction for you. If you want to use this option, contact your financial advisor or the institution holding your IRA and let them know your preferences.

As a side note, some of the tax savings you realize could be used to increase your yearly pledge. (Just a suggestion).

If this is something that interests you, contact whoever assists you in your financial planning and check it out.

Contains adult language and content. Reservations for groups will be taken on December 9th. Payment will be taken on February 9th. Please sign up on the bulletin board in Vandenberg Hall by December 8th. The ticket cost is $39. Dinner, after the play, will be planned at a local Chelsea restaurant, for those who are interested. Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan

Friends and Colleagues,

It is with great joy and excitement that we announce the election of the Rt. Rev. Wayne M. Hougland, Jr., as Bishop Provisional of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Michigan by the 25th Diocesan Convention.

Bishop Wayne will serve the Episcopal Dioceses of Eastern Michigan and Western Michigan as we enter into a 3-5 year period of conversation around relationship and sharing of resources. This next step for the two dioceses is the result of nearly two and a half years of conversation, kicked off by the resignation of our former bishop, the Rt. Rev. Todd Ousley, to become Bishop for Pastoral Development of the Episcopal Church, a position on the Presiding Bishop's staff.

Following a series of regional and diocesan-wide meetings, we voted last Fall to invite the Diocese of Western Michigan to consent to the nomination of Bishop Wayne, to serve as our bishop provisional. In the Spring, after a series of meetings on the western side of the state, Western Michigan's Diocesan Council and Standing Committee voted unanimously to accept the invitation.

We are excited to be building on our commitment to creative and innovative ministry by entering into this next phase of life for our two dioceses. We don't know where this relationship will lead, but by placing our trust in the Holy Spirit and committing to the work of discernment and risk-taking, we believe we can build a church responsive to the needs of her people and flexible to the demands of 21st century mission and ministry. Let's Dance!

Please join us in celebration and in prayer for our diocese, the Diocese of Western Michigan, and our bishop, Wayne:

O God, by your grace you have called us in this diocese to a goodly fellowship of faith. Bless our Bishop, Wayne, and other clergy, and all our people. Grant that your Word may be truly preached and truly heard, your Sacraments faithfully administered and faithfully received. By your Spirit, fashion our lives according to the example of your Son, and grant that we may show the power of your love to all among whom we live; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thanks be to God!

A Little More About All Hallow's Eve

All Hallow's Day, the fest of All Saints on the first of November used to be celebrated in the spring. (The Eastern Church still observes it on the first Sunday after Pentecost.) But in the eighth century it was transferred to November on the Western calendar, where it became the climax of the autumn season, a harvest festival celebrating all whom God has called to glory.

And All Saint's Day

Halloween in our culture today has become an odd mixture of tributes to Dracula and roaming spirits, TV superheroes and comic characters, and participation in innocent harvest festivals and costume parties.

Literally, of course, it is the eve of All Hallow's—a preparation for the observance of tomorrow of the Feast of All Hallows or All Saints. That feast gives the assurance that there is a state of being that stretches beyond our life here on this earth—an affirmation of the essential spiritual nature of human life. People are made for more than can be experienced over our lifetime spent in this world.

The Apostle Paul underscores that when he writes to the Ephesians, that the highest role reserved for human beings is, as he puts it, "to rule with Christ in the heavenly world. And God has done this to demonstrate for all time the extraordinary greatness of his grace in the love he showed us in Christ Jesus."

So this Christian season brings us a comforting reminder that there is a destiny designed for us, assuring us of a continuing existence, and it's a promise endorsed by Jesus when he spoke of the many mansions that he has prepared for us.

(Halloween assures) us that God's love stretches far beyond death.

Certainly, of all people, Christians should be joyful. The challenge is to use the creativity of the Creator to celebrate both the light and the life He brought into this world, and His victory over evil—and evil spirits—which extends into the next. We can continue to sing our songs of thanksgiving for the creation of the world, while we look forward to that everlasting New Year at the end of the time, when all things will be gathered in at the Final Harvest and "God shall be all-in-all." (Corinthians 15:28).

- Advent-to-Go: Bags available on Sunday, November 1st and after while supplies last. Every year we provide a gift bag of items designed to help individuals and families observe the season of Advent at home. Some items may be intended for the dinner table and others are more for the contemplative times for individuals. Included in the bag are four blue (during Advent, we use blue rather than purple and pink candles at St. Jude's. Blue is the color for mother Mary) and one white tea lights. There will also be contemplative coloring/ doodling sheets, a box of colored pencils or fine point markers and a suggested liturgy to use with Advent Wreaths. Pick up your Advent-to-Go Bag on table for Christian Formation.

- Advent Fair: Sunday, December 1st, Coffee Hour. Join us in making Mother Mary and Baby Jesus icon collages, Advent poster coloring, Chrismons and a new kind of Advent Wreath. New this year, we'd also like to decorate the activity and coffee hour tables with Nativity Scenes from home. Would you consider bringing yours to share for a day at Advent Fair? It would be fun if there were a little write-up of the story of how this Nativity Scene came to be in your house. We'll need at least nine creche scenes. Please let Kris Forsyth know if you are willing to share yours for just one morning.

Sunday Morning Nursery Care

For Infants thru Kindergartners

The nursery opens at 10:15am on Sundays. Nursery staffers bring any children from the nursery into Godly Play (when it is being offered) for the story. Very young children and Nursery Staffers may return to the nursery to play afterwards until parents pick their children up for communion. If the children are 4 years old or older, we generally have them stay in Godly Play for creative time or "Work Time". All of the children who stay in Godly Play for work time join their parents in worship around the time of the Peace.
